

FRAMEWORK AGREEMENT

between

The United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization, a Specialized Agency of the United Nations System, having its headquarters at 7, Place de Fontenoy, 75352 Paris 07 SP, France (hereinafter referred to as "UNESCO")

and

The International Council for Philosophy and Human Sciences, an international non-governmental organization, established under the laws of France, and whose official address is Maison des ONG, Palais de l'UNESCO, 1 rue Miollis, 75732 Paris Cedex, France (hereinafter referred to as "CIPSH") hereinafter referred to jointly as "the Parties";

WHEREAS CIPSH is in official partnership with UNESCO (associate status) under the Directives concerning UNESCO's relations with Foundations and similar institutions;

WHEREAS UNESCO and CIPSH have engaged in longstanding and successful cooperation within the framework of UNESCO's successive Medium-Term Strategies, including but not limited to cooperation in the celebration of World Philosophy Day; publication of journals, books and other material; organization of joint events; and setting global agendas on philosophy and the humanities;

WHEREAS UNESCO and CIPSH have decided to continue collaborating, and to that end have entered into this Framework Agreement;

NOW THEREFORE the Parties agree as follows:

Article 1 – Purpose

The purpose of this Agreement is to establish, for the period corresponding to UNESCO's Medium-Term Strategy for 2014-2021, a general framework in which the Parties will collaborate, namely within the general strategic and programmatic setting of the intergovernmental science programme on the Management of Social Transformations

